Music Courses

Understanding Copyright and Compliance

This helpful course explains what copyright means and when there may be exceptions. It discusses Fair Use, when a piece of music might be in the Public Domain, copyright infringement penalties and much more.

Introduction to Interscholastic Music

Provides an overview of best practices in the music classroom and interscholastic music competitions. The skills taught in this course introduce and reinforce time tested guidelines and techniques for music educators of any level of proficiency. This course is best fit for music educators in their beginning years.

Introduction to Music Adjudication

Introduction to Music Adjudication explains the role and responsibilities of a music adjudicator, presents adjudicating guidelines and other best practices, and includes examples of student performances to help you practice adjudicating actual students.

Interscholastic Music Event Management

Highlights the crucial role of a contest, festival, or honor group manager in creating a positive environment for student success. It provides timetables to help you be prepared for the day of the event, along with many other guidelines to help your event succeed.

Band Safety

To help you provide a safe environment for your students, the NFHS has partnered with Music for All, BoA, WGI Sport of the Arts, DCI, and Varsity Athletic Bands. This course addresses weather, hydration, injuries and other safety concerns, as well as band-specific content concerning equipment considerations, hearing protection, and more.
